CASE NO. T-0227:16

DECISION NO. 96-108

JOINT MOTION TO CONTINUE

The parties, each represented by counsel who appeared before the undersigned hearing officer at the Board's offices in Concord, New Hampshire on November 19, 1996, jointly moved to continue the hearing in this matter until after December 23, 1996, based on the following:

1. The parties are engaged in evaluating mid-term bargaining proposals to resolve the merits of the pending unfair labor practice (ULP).
2. The parties have committed to meet again on or before December 20, 1996 to explore further these proposals for settling the current dispute.
3. The parties, or either of them, will notify the PELRB before December 23, 1996, if further proceedings are required in this matter. If such notice for further proceedings is not received by the PELRB before December 23, 1996, this matter will be dismissed from the PELRB's docket of cases.

4. The continuance sought in this case is without prejudice to time limits for processing the pending complaint.

WHEREUPON the Parties' joint motion to continue this matter until after December 23, 1996 is hereby GRANTED.

So ordered.

Signed this 20th day of November, 1996.
